The Herbal Thymes

Issue: January/February 2015

Unit News

The January 2015 issue of the Wisconsin Herbalist was published mid-January. BIG thanks to Patty B. for all the wonderful soup recipes. We published 17! This might give us a good idea for a “Winter” cookbook????

Don't forget about Book Thymes this Sunday at 1:00 at Barnes and Noble. Even if you didn't read the book – Old Herbaceous – join us for some herbal talk.

Meeting Agendas for February

No meeting in January. In February we will be talking about Tea Tree – so study up and bring what you find to share! If anyone wants to buy the Essential Oil – let Tracy know and she can order it to have it there for the meeting. Please have your Frontier order to Tracy by Feb5th so we can have them at the meeting on February 14th at 10.

At noon – our “project” will be making soap. This is a new and easy recipe so everyone will get a chance. If you would like to bring some home – let Jackie know and she will get more supplies and those who want soap can split the cost of their ingredients.
